

Yom Haatzmaut and Myers-JDC-Brookdale

As Israel celebrates its 67th Day of Independence, we at MJB continue to address the major social challenges confronting the State of Israel. Using research to help improve the effectiveness of Israel's social services, MJB has played a decisive role in major social policy and service reforms, in the spirit of the Declaration of Independence below.

“THE STATE OF ISRAEL will be open for Jewish immigration and for the Ingathering of the Exiles; it will foster the development of the country for the benefit of all its inhabitants; it will be based on freedom, justice and peace as envisaged by the prophets of Israel; it will ensure complete equality of social and political rights to all its inhabitants irrespective of religion, race or sex; it will guarantee freedom of religion, conscience, language, education and culture; it will safeguard the Holy Places of all religions; and it will be faithful to the principles of the Charter of the United Nations.”
